Most ODJFS programs are administered by local agencies, so you can get the assistance you need right in your own county. Click on your county name below to find contact and location information for your:

- County Department of Job and Family Services (CDJFS) – for help with cash assistance, food assistance or child care
- Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) – for help establishing a support order, making payments or getting support you’re owed
- Public Children Services Agency (PCS A) – for child protective services, foster care or adoption services
- OhioMeansJobs (OMJ) Center – for help finding a job or accessing job training
