

Fulton County—26

Karen Pennington, Coordinator
606 S. Shoop Ave
Wauseon, Ohio 43567
Office: 419-337-0915
Fax: 419-337-0561
Email: karen.pennington@odh.ohio.gov

Resources:

Center for Child and Family Advocacy: A abuse prevention and treatment nonprofit organization. Through its various programs, the organization provides education, treatment and assistance for victims of sexual abuse or domestic violence.

Contact information: Cheryl Robbins, Director
219 East Washington Street
Napoleon, OH 43545
419-592-0540

Families and Schools Together: An evidence based drug and alcohol prevention program. The program enhances family communication and support thereby increasing school performance and behavior.

Contact information: Lisa Jones
Four County Family Center
7320 State Highway 108
Wauseon, OH 43567
419-335-3732

First Call for Help – 211 Call Center: Information and referral, hotline, crisis intervention, mental health assessments, crisis stabilization unit, outpatient psychiatric services

Contact information: 419-599-1600 or 211

Four County Family Center: A children's mental health agency that specializes in the treatment of children and families. Services include: outpatient therapy, intensive home-based treatment, functional family therapy, case management, service coordination/wraparound and psychiatric evaluation with board certified child and adolescent psychiatrists.

Contact information: Kathy Short, Director
7320 State Highway 108
Wauseon, OH 43567
419-335-3732

Help Me Grow: The Fulton County Help Me Grow Program is dedicated to serving Fulton County expectant parents, newborns, infants and toddlers so that our children are able to start their school years healthy and ready to learn. We provide prenatal visits, home visiting services, developmental screening and evaluations, service coordination, family support services, respite services and specialized services such as occupational, speech and physical therapies.

Contact information: Kristie Humbert, Director
Fulton County Board of Developmental Disabilities
1056 Ottokee
Wauseon, OH 43567
419-337-4579

Lutheran Social Services of Northwestern Ohio: Counseling: Individual, couples, families (children through seniors) adoption. No financial assistance for rent, utilities, etc.

Contact information: T793 State Route 66
Archbold, OH 43502
800-577-8629

Parenting in Fulton County: Parenting wisely – young children, is a program that helps parents learn techniques that will help control obnoxious behavior, encourage good behavior and strengthen relationships with their children. Parenting Enrichment is a systematic training for effective parenting which helps parents understand themselves, their beliefs and their feelings. It encourages listening and talking to your child and helping children to learn cooperation.

Contact information: Cheryl Barber Spires, R.D, L.D
Ohio State University Extension
8770 State Route 108, Ste. A
Wauseon, OH 43567
419-337-9210

Partnership for a Drug Free Fulton County: Partnership is a group of youth, parents and representatives from community agencies and organizations who all work together to decrease youth substance abuse in our county.

Contact information: Lou Moody, Project Director
Fulton County Health Department
606 S. Shoop Ave.
Wauseon, OH 43567
419-337-0915

Stress Unit: Outpatient services, partial hospitalization, counseling, in-patient hospitalization, outpatient psychiatric treatment, dual diagnosis treatment, crisis response assistance site.

Contact information: Fulton County Health Center
725 S. Shoop Ave.

Wauseon, OH 43567
419-337-8661

Teen Line: Teen Line provides 24 hour confidential hotline services for children and adolescents. Calls are answered by a professional staff. The hotline allows children to report potential violence and to receive crisis assistance in their school, home and community to secure a safe environment.

Contact information: 877-419-7233