Title: Knowing Yourself To Better Serve Families

Abstract: This training event is for both parents and professionals. The workshop is entitled “Knowing Yourself To Better Serve Families”. It is designed to help participants identify their own strengths and challenges so they can better serve families, including their own. This workshop will also enable participants to understand their role in developing positive, supportive and reciprocal relationships between parents and professionals thus helping to prevent child abuse and neglect.

Agency: Stark County Family and Children First Council

Contact: Janice Houchins 330-492-8136 Ext. 1481

Funding: $2,000.00