

Program Development & Support

The Program Development & Support unit begins the process of implementing a new program or policy. The unit researches similar initiatives and guides a program in the direction that will be most beneficial to Ohioans. Program Development & Support is also responsible for coordinating State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP), a federally mandated program for uninsured children, which the unit helped create.

Related information:

SCHIP: SCHIP overview and yearly reports from federal fiscal year 1998.