

What's changed?

What's not...

Basically the function of ICAMA forms remains the same...to make it easy* for children with adoption assistance agreements and title IV-E GAP agreements to receive Medicaid services in a state other than their agreement state (AS)

EASY means the family doesn't have to DO anything* to receive Medicaid

Not do anything means they don't have to apply for Medicaid...

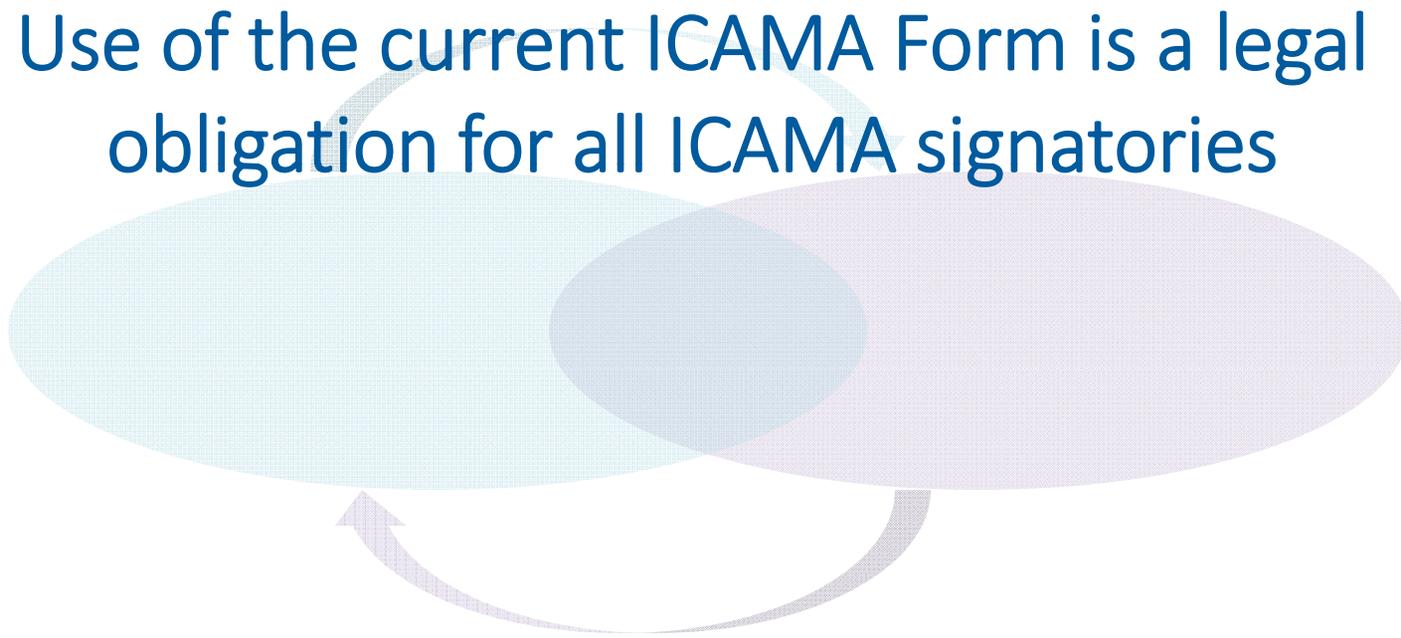

...families should contact their AS to advise of a change of Residence State (RS)

(in a perfect world, we know)

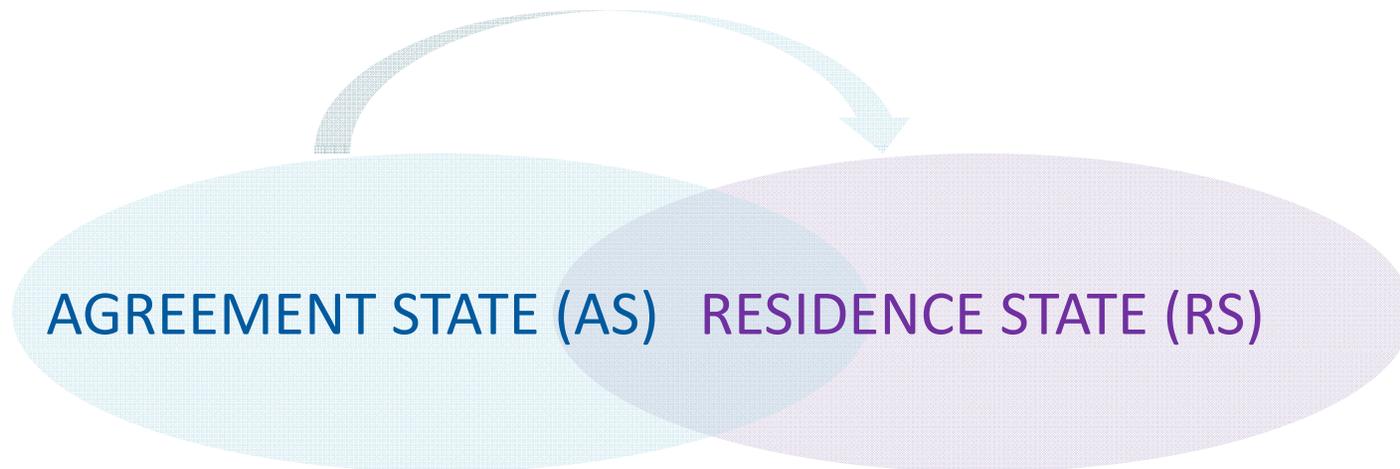

What's changed?
What's not...

Use of the current ICAMA Form is a legal obligation for all ICAMA signatories

Just a few notes on the ICAMA Process

There are two kinds of states in the ICAMA process:

Agreement state always begins the relationship with the Residence state. The relationship continues until:

The child leaves the RS or

The parents' agreement with the AS ends

Just a few notes on the ICAMA Process

Each exchange of information between the

AGREEMENT STATE (AS) and RESIDENCE STATE (RS)
is called an ACTION*

For ease of discussion*

Here's how it all starts

ICAMA Form

Agreement State

Select option

- Open Medicaid Case
- Close Medicaid Case
- Medicaid Extension Request
- Contact Information Change
- Change in Case Status

Initially, as there are no entries in the database, you will use the 'Open Medicaid Case' almost exclusively as the AS

This is the option where states enter all the information on the child.
This is the only entry where the server does not 'look up' a child...just sits ready to receive data.

A word about the Certification...

This is what makes the ICAMA form a legal document giving the Residence State (RS) the authority to open a Medicaid case without doing their standard eligibility determination.

In essence it says that the signer guarantees that the eligibility stated above conforms to federal regulation.

What's changed?

What's not...

The big change is that when you complete all this information:

- it will be part of the secure database
- it will never need to be entered again
- the RS ICAMA administrator will receive immediate notice that a request to open Medicaid is in their task box
- the child's AS/RS interstate case history can be accessed at any time just by entering the child's SSN

And if your state approves, you won't have any more papers to store....

What's changed?

What's not...

The other important difference (benefit) is that because this information is now part of a database

—your state will access to real-time data on:

How many children ENTER your state under the ICAMA

The types of eligibility (title IV-E/non title IV-E)

The ages of the children

Which states they are from

How many children LEAVE your state under the ICAMA

The types of eligibility (title IV-E/non title IV-E)

The ages of the children

Which states they go to

There will also be analytics done on the numbers produced by the database.

What's changed?

What's not...

The 'open Medicaid case' request is much the same as the 6.01 you've been working with...

But now subsequent information exchanges between the AS and the RS will be much easier

And states have a lot more scope for providing information to each other

It's likely that the ICAMA 6.03 will not be long mourned...

What's changed?

What's not...

After the 'Open Medicaid' request...

All actions by either state will now be done using the child's Social Security Number (SSN)

There is no other way to access the child's interstate case history.

What's changed? What's not...

The Agreement State (AS) has the following options in addition to the Open Medicaid Case request:

From the
ICAMA
6.03

- Close Medicaid Case
- Medicaid Extension Request
- Contact Information Change
- Change in Case Status

This is a new option and was not on the ICAMA 6.03

NON-
TITLE IV-E

About the extension of Medicaid for children with non-title IV-E Adoption Assistance Agreements (AAA):

- The Residence (RS) will be able to respond to these requests through the ICAMA database.
- AAICAMA encourages ICAMA Professionals to call the RS if they haven't received a response within 7 business days.

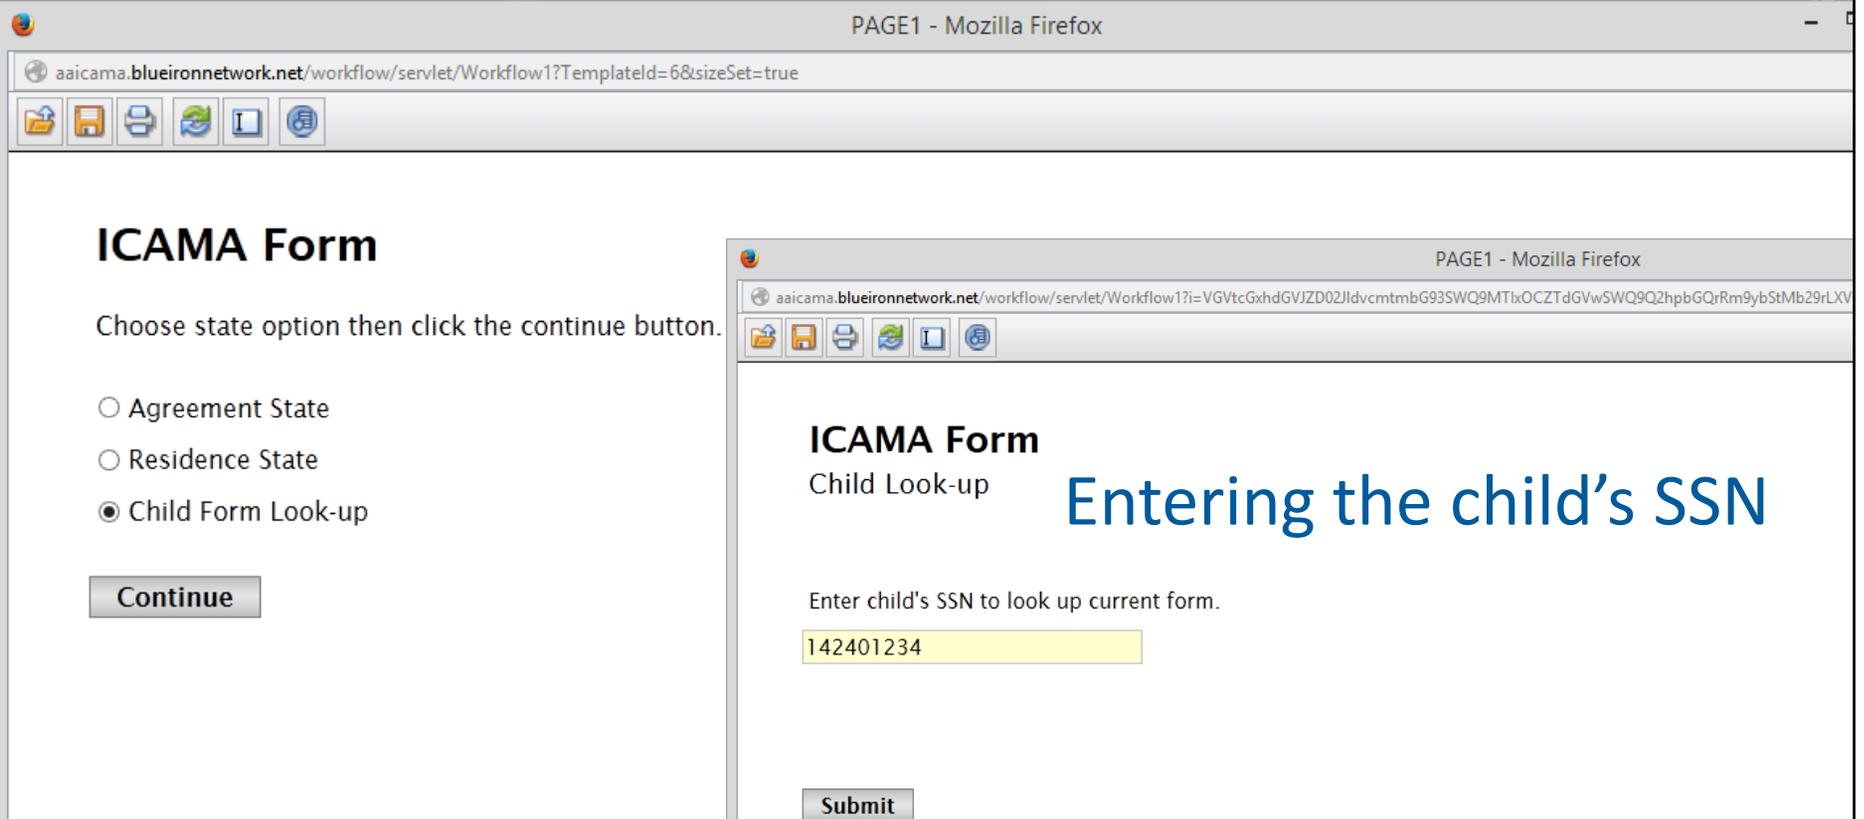

There could be many reasons for the delay—A phone call may help clarify the situation for the RS. For instance, a more detailed explanation of why the extension is needed could allow the RS to extend the Medicaid.

TITLE IV-E

Residence State
extension of Medicaid after age 18

There is no option for this....

WHY? (hint title IV-E)

There is no reason for the Residence State to respond —once title IV-E eligibility has been extended Medicaid MUST be provided to the child until their eligibility ends.

The only action the Residence state should take is to follow their state process for ensuring the Medicaid case will remain open until the child's eligibility ends.

Responsibilities

Agreement State

- Directs RS to open Medicaid case
- Extends eligibility for assistance
- Directs RS to close Medicaid case if eligibility ends
- Directs RS to close Medicaid case if child leaves RS

Residence State

- Informs AS that Medicaid case is open
- Informs AS that Medicaid case has been or will be closed
- Informs AS that Medicaid has been extended (title IV-E)
- Informs AS state if Medicaid extension has been approved or denied (state-funded AA)
- Informs AS that child has entered foster care

Both States

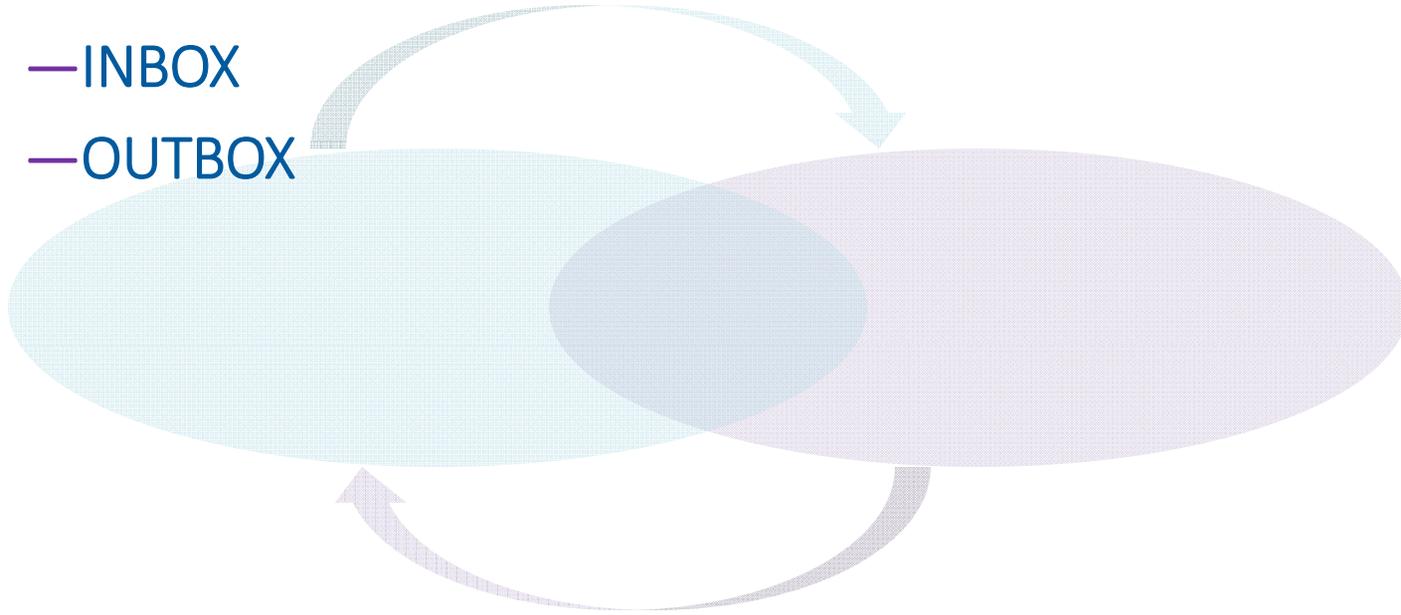

- Notify of address or other contact information change
- Notify of dissolution of adoption
- Notify of finalization of adoption
