

PARTNERS
FOR OHIO'S FAMILIES

It is our responsibility to provide leadership and maintain organizational and professional competence.

Policies and supports should be strength-based and recognize the uniqueness of each community and agency.

There is urgency and importance to our work.

Each staff member has a role in our work and must be held accountable to promote safety and a sense of belonging for children, youth and vulnerable adults.

Each staff member has a responsibility and commitment to the agencies and individuals that we serve.

We seek ways to include the voices of youth and families in our work.

Every person has value and should be treated in a manner that is respectful and culturally responsive.

Partnerships and collaboration enhance the quality of outcomes.

Partners are given voice in a decision-making process.

Everyone Desires Respect

All people have worth and a right to self-determination, to make their own decisions about their lives.

Everyone Needs to be Heard

This principle asks us to “seek first to understand” and is accomplished primarily through empathetic listening.

Everyone has Strengths

All people have resources, skills, past successes, abilities, talents and dreams that provide the raw material for solutions and future success.

Judgments Can Wait

Once a judgment is made, one’s tendency is to stop gathering new information or to interpret new information in light of the prior judgment.

Partners Share Power

Power differentials create obstacles to partnerships.

Partnership is a Process

Each of the six principles is a part of a greater whole.
