Except a child exhibiting evidence of corporal punishment or other physical disciplinary measure by parent, guardian, custodian, person having custody or control, or person in loco parentis of a child is not an abused child under this division of section 2919.22 of ORC, or because of the acts of his parents, guardian, or custodian, suffers physical or mental injury that harms or threatens to harm the child's health or well-being, or is subject to out-of-home care child abuse.

EVEN T	ELEMENT	VALUE	NAME	SHORT NAME	DEFINITION
I00	604	02	Neglect	Neglect	A child who is abandoned by the child's parents, guardian, or custodian; who lacks adequate parental care because of the faults or habits of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian. or whose parents, guardian, or custodian neglects the child or refuses to provide proper or necessary subsistence, education, medical or surgical care or treatment, or other care necessary for the child's health, morals, or well being, or a child whose parents, guardian, or custodian neglect the child or refuses to provide the special care made necessary by the child's mental condition; whose parents, guardian, or custodian have placed or attempted to place the child in violation of sections 5103.06 and 5103.17 of the Revised Code, or because of the omission of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, suffers physical or mental injury that harms or threatens to harm the child's health or welfare; or who is subject to out-of-home care child neglect.
I00	604	03	Sexual Abuse	Sex Abuse	The child is the victim of sexual activity as defined under Chapter 2907 of the Revised Code, where such activity would constitute an offense under that Chapter, except that the court need not find that any person has been convicted of the offense in order to find that the child is an abused child.
I00	604	04	Mental Injury	Mental Inj	The child is a victim of any behavioral, cognitive, emotional, or mental disorder caused by an act or omission that is described in ORC 2919.22 and is committed by the parent or other person responsible for the child's care.
I00	604	05	Withholding Treatment Disabled Infant	Dis Infant	A disabled infant is the victim of the failure to respond to life-threatening conditions by providing treatment (including appropriate nutrition, hydration, and medication) which, in the attending physician's reasonable medical judgment will most likely be effective in ameliorating or correcting all such conditions. This term does not include the failure to provide treatment (other than appropriate nutrition, hydration, or medication) to a disabled infant when, in the attending physician's reasonable medical judgment, any of the following circumstances apply: the disabled infant is chronically and irreversibly comatose; the provisions of such treatment would merely prolong dying, or not be effective in ameliorating or correcting all of the disabled infant's life threatening conditions, or otherwise be futile in terms of survival of the disabled infant; the provisions of such treatment would be virtually futile in terms of the survival of the disabled infant and the treatment itself under such circumstances would be inhumane.
