

Practice Profile #8

Demonstrating Cultural and Diversity Competence

Interacting with families without making assumptions, respecting and learning from the unique characteristics and strengths of the family while acknowledging and honoring the diversity within and across cultures, and applying these skills to the partnership with the family and the options made available to them.

- Conduct self-assessments of your own cultural competency
- Make an effort to learn about each family's culture
- View each family as having unique values and traditions
- Inform treatment providers of any unique cultural needs of the family
