CHILD SUPPORT (CS) RANDOM MOMENT SAMPLE OBSERVATION MOMENT

Random Moment Observation General Instructions

The information reported in webRMS is used to determine how the administrative costs are spread among the programs for federal financial participation.

PROGRAMS

Select the most appropriate program code that you are working on at the selected moment.

100	IV-D Support Enforcement Program	Activity associated with a IV-D case that is eligible for federal financial participation (FFP).
101	Non IV-D Support Enforcement Program	Case management or enforcement activities provided to any non IV-D case. A non IV-D order is one where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Services are not being provided under the State’s Title IV-A, Title IV-D, Title IV-E, or Title XIX programs. • Has not previously provided services under any of these programs. • There is no current application or applicable fee for services paid by either parent.
200	CSEA Special Grant	Activity associated with special/demonstration grants.
997	Common to Several	Activity associated with more than one program, including activities that benefit multiple programs and general administrative activities that cannot be associated with a single program represented on this time study.
998	Non-Reimbursable	Activities that are not being reimbursed or are being reimbursed through a mechanism other than the agency's IV-D allocation: such as a special project allocation; a contract or memorandum of understanding with another family services agency or workforce development agency; or in a sparsely populated geographic area, functions associated with PA programs.
999	Position Idle	Employee was on break, at lunch, on leave or on personal business. Also, a position currently in the time study is idle when it is due to a short-term absence when the observation moment occurs and the position is not reassigned to an employee who is not currently in the time study.
