

USDOL Discretionary Grants in Ohio

CITY	GRANTEE	OTHER ID	END	AVAILABLE	PROJECT DESCRIPTION
Akron	Akron Summit CAP	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,050,000	Akron-Summit CAP operates a comprehensive youth and community program serving Summit County within the City of Akron. The program addresses core issues facing low-income youth and communities, including inadequate education, housing, employment and training.
Beavercreek	Dayton Defense	Earmark	4/20/2013	$300,000	The purpose of this $300,000 earmark grant is to create and launch the Dayton Defense Wright Center of Workforce Preparedness.
Berea	Berea Children's Home	Health Care Sector	2/28/2013	$4,927,843	Berea Children's Home serves a target population of unemployed workers in Cuyahoga and Lorain counties, providing GED attainment, CNA, and LPN training.
Canton	Project ReBuild, Inc.	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,098,321	Project ReBuild serves a target population of at-risk youth between the ages of 16-24 in Canton, providing GED/HS diploma assistance and certified construction training.
Cincinnati	Easter Seals	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$800,015	Easter Seals uses its award to support a YouthBuild program serving youth ages 16-24 in construction trades and GED training.
Cincinnati	Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$971,876	Serving Hamilton County within the City of Cincinnati, the Cincinnati-Hamilton County CAP uses its grant to support its Blueprint for Success initiative, begun in 2005 to assist individuals in obtaining a new, promising livelihood by providing intensive supportive services coupled with educational and vocational training.
Cincinnati	Lighthouse Youth Services, Inc.	Youth Offender	12/13/2013	$1,348,509	Lighthouse will develop a Lighthouse Civic Justice Corps (LCJC) that will serve up to 110 youth returning to the community from ODYS facilities and Lighthouse Youth Center at Paint Creek (LYCPC).
Cincinnati	Cincinnati State Technical and Community College	TC	9/30/2014	$19,613,306	The Health Profession Pathways (H2P) Consortium includes 10 community colleges and partner employers and agencies who will galvanize a national movement to dramatically improve health professions training.
Cincinnati	Cincinnati State Technical and Community College	Health Care Sector	2/28/2013	$4,935,132	Cincinnati State TC uses its grant to target sectors in healthcare, including nursing, allied health, long-term care, and health information technology.
Cincinnati	Ohio Electrical LMC	Energy Training	1/14/2012	$4,826,073	The Ohio LMC uses its award to support its Green Renewable Opportunities for Workers project. This initiative utilizes 19 existing industry training centers to provide green skills training to dislocated and incumbent workers.
Cincinnati	Cincinnati State Technical and Community College	Community-Based JTI	2/14/2012	$499,014	Cincinnati State TC uses its grants to support "Green Technologies" stackable certificates which addresses core competencies in a variety of energy conservation and green building programs.
Cincinnati	YWCA of Greater Cincinnati	Apprenticeship	6/30/2012	$166,666	Grant administered from National Office.
Circleville	Workforce Services Unlimited	Earmark		$450,000	The Workforce Services Unlimited grant application is under review.
Cleveland	Cuyahoga Metropolitan Housing Authority	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$806,626	The purpose of the Cuyahoga Metro Housing Authority award is to develop a basic workforce transformation program that provides educational development and occupational skills job training.
Cleveland	Cuyahoga Community College District	High Growth	11/30/2015	$4,084,007	The Project is designed to fill workforce shortages in information technology network occupations and health information technology occupations. Combined, there are 360 annual openings projected through 2016 in these occupations.

USDOL Discretionary Grants in Ohio

CITY	GRANTEE	OTHER ID	END	AVAILABLE	PROJECT DESCRIPTION
Cleveland	Union Construction Industry Partnership	Earmark	4/30/2012	$285,000	The Union Construction Industry Partnership collaborates with local hospitals and the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce to provide educational training for nursing and long term health care instruction in a non-traditional setting.
Cleveland	Vocational Guidance Services	Earmark		$100,000	The Vocational Guidance Services grant application is under review.
Columbiana	The Way Station	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$387,294	The Way Station serves a target population of disadvantaged youth in rural Appalachian Columbiana County. This project further targets youth who reside in the impoverished communities of East Liverpool and Wellsville.
Columbus	Buckeye Community Hope	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,100,000	Buckeye Community Hope Foundation's YouthBuild Columbus program serves a target population of 17-22 year old inner-city youth from predominantly the eastern portion of the City of Columbus, providing diploma-track secondary education, construction and/or healthcare training, life skills instruction, and supportive services designed to transition students to college or a rewarding career.
Columbus	Buckeye Community Hope	YouthBuild	5/31/2014	$1,100,000	Buckeye Community Hope Foundation's YouthBuild Columbus program serves a target population of 17-22 year old inner-city youth from predominantly the eastern portion of the City of Columbus, providing diploma-track secondary education, construction and/or healthcare training, life skills instruction, and supportive services designed to transition students to college or a rewarding career.
Columbus	Youth Over Us, Inc.	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,100,000	Youth Over Us, Inc.'s Franklin County YouthBuild program serves a target population of out-of-school 18-24 year olds, targeting primarily the west side of the City of Columbus and offering GED-track secondary education, construction training, and education in job readiness, life skills, financial skills, and leadership skills, all geared towards the development of abilities and attitudes supportive of self-sufficiency.
Columbus	Youth Over Us, Inc.	YouthBuild	5/31/2014	$1,100,000	Youth Over Us, Inc.'s Franklin County YouthBuild program serves a target population of out-of-school 18-24 year olds, targeting primarily the west side of the City of Columbus and offering GED-track secondary education, construction training, and education in job readiness, life skills, financial skills, and leadership skills, all geared towards the development of abilities and attitudes supportive of self-sufficiency.
Columbus	Ohio Department of Job and Family Services	State Energy Sector	1/28/2013	$6,000,000	Ohio's State Energy Program (SEP) focuses on renewable energy and energy efficiency. The mission is to develop state policy that results in pollution reduction, energy savings, and renewable energy production.
Columbus	Ohio Department of Job and Family Services	Independent Initiative	11/30/2011	$1,000,000	Grant administered from National Office.
Columbus	BioOhio	Health Care Sector	2/28/2013	$5,000,000	BioOhio serves a target population of unemployed and underemployed workers, by providing occupational training job placement in biotechnology jobs.
Columbus	Columbus State Community College	Logistics	2/28/2013	$4,605,303	Columbus State Community College's Attracting and Retaining Talent (ART) is designed to attract, train and retain qualified individuals in the field of logistics. The program provides training tailored to meet the workforce needs of businesses at entry-to mid-level positions within warehouse, distribution, and related logistics positions.
Dayton	Improved Solutions/Urban Systems (ISUS)	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,100,000	Improved Solutions/Urban Systems uses its award to provide education (GED), life skills, job readiness construction training, and NCCER and LEED certification to 80 disadvantaged youth ages 16-24 in Dayton.
Dayton	Montgomery County	Earmark	4/30/2012	$95,000	Montgomery County uses its award to support training in emerging industries for 20 dislocated workers seeking local employment.

USDOL Discretionary Grants in Ohio

CITY	GRANTEE	OTHER ID	END	AVAILABLE	PROJECT DESCRIPTION
Dayton	Sinclair Community College	Earmark	3/31/2012	$143,000	Sinclair CC is using its award to provide training and development of dislocated and incumbent workers to help them obtain and retain jobs in advanced and traditional manufacturing, tooling, and machine sectors.
Elyria	Lorain County Community College	JAC	9/30/2015	$1,000,000	The Jobs and Innovation Accelerator Challenge is designed to help regions achieve the demonstrated benefits of collaborative, cluster-based regional development.
McArthur	Sojourners Care Network	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$845,161	This project from Sojourner Care Network serves disadvantaged youth in rural southeastern Ohio, following the YouthBuild model.
Ohio	Ohio Department of Job and Family Services	High Growth	11/30/2015	$5,000,000	The H-1B Technical Skills Training Grant Program is intended to raise the technical skill levels of American workers so they can obtain or upgrade employment in high-growth industries and occupations. Over time, these education and training programs will help business reduce their use of skilled foreign professionals permitted to work in the U.S. on a temporary basis under the H-1B visa program.
Ohio	Ohio Department of Job and Family Services	Disability Employment Initiative	9/30/2014	$2,944,036	ODJFS - Disability Employment Initiative (DEI) project will use the funds to enhance the One-Stop system's capacity to ensure that adults with disabilities can achieve their greatest degree of economic success.
Steubenville	Eastern Gateway Community College	Community-Based JTI	2/14/2012	$1,902,703	The purpose of the Eastern Gateway CC grant is to increase the grantee's capacity to create a "virtual" community college.
Toledo	Lucas County	Earmark	4/30/2012	$190,000	Lucas County uses its grant to support its Microenterprise Development Program (MDP) for small businesses by providing funds for training and technical assistance. The grant helps entrepreneurs by providing training targeting business start-up activities.
Various	CWA NET Trust	Energy Training	1/14/2012	$3,969,056	CWA National serves a target population of dislocated and incumbent workers in Allen, Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Montgomery, Richland, Seneca, Shelby, and Trumbull counties, providing training in energy efficiency, environmentally and sustainable manufacturing.
Warren	Trumbull Metropolitan Housing Authority	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$786,554	The Trumbull Metro Housing Authority project serves low-income, high school dropouts in northeast Ohio, following the YouthBuild model.
Warren	Hard Hatted Women	Earmark	6/30/2012	$200,000	The Hard Hatted Women has identified an innovative strategy to prepare women for high-wage trade and technical careers critical to our national economic recovery, including those in the emerging green economy.
Washington C.H.	Community Action of Fayette County	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,040,000	The Community Action of Fayetteville YouthBuild grant operates in Fayette and Pickaway counties. The grantee has contracted with another agency to split the participants into two groups.
Youngstown	Youngstown Metropolitan Housing Authority	YouthBuild	6/30/2012	$1,080,000	The Youngstown Metro Housing Authority project provides construction training and leadership development for 30 at risk youth ages 16-24. Youth will receive Home Builders Institute (HBI-PACT) certification and training in construction, math, carpentry and plumbing.
Youngstown	Youngstown Neighborhood Development	Earmark		$305,000	The Youngstown Neighborhood Development grant application is under review.
Youngstown	YWCA of Youngstown	Earmark	4/30/2012	$146,000	The YWCA of Youngstown is using this award to recruit and train 110 low income women and/or minorities to receive job readiness and orientation for non-traditional jobs for women and to participate in the New Career Pathways program.
Zanesville	Zane State College	Community-Based JTI	6/30/2013	$2,988,261	Zane State College uses its award in support of over 300 courses in eight associate degrees and certificate programs in energy and green technology.

USDOL Discretionary Grants in Ohio

CITY	GRANTEE	OTHER ID	END	AVAILABLE	PROJECT DESCRIPTION
			Total	$91,389,756	