Title:

Choose Your Partner Carefully Trainings for Community Leaders

Abstract:

Franklin County Family and Children First Council is partnering with Franklin County Children Services (FCCS) to sponsor two community leader training sessions as part of the implementation of the Choose Your Partner Carefully campaign. FCCS will host two training sessions to train a minimum of 25 community leaders to spread the message to their congregations, social service organizations and family-focused programs. These will be the first in a long line of training sessions to occur throughout Franklin County, and the training curriculum, format and training materials developed for these initial sessions will model training efforts for the foreseeable future. Those first to be trained will be sent back into their communities with enough linguistically appropriate materials to carry the Choose Your Partner Carefully message. Each community leader, through his/her congregation or organization, will reach dozens of mothers and mothers' support networks with the Choose Your Partner Carefully message.

OCTF funds will be used to provide professional trainers, linguistically appropriate materials and promotion of these events.
