

Pause for a child

Title:

Strong Families Growing Safe Kids

Abstract:

The Strong Families Growing Safe Kids event will offer parents and children of Mahoning County programming that will be participatory or interactive in nature and will be designed to teach or transfer skills or knowledge through a “hands-on” approach. Parents and children can select the training sessions they wish to attend including: parental resilience; child rearing/child development; nurturing/attachment through infant massage; protecting your children online; and parenting children with disabilities. In addition, there will be children’s activities stations with games, craft and stories. After attending these activities, parents and children will be able to create resource toolkits from the items they have obtained during their sessions. The target population for this event is parents and children.
