

Pause for a child

Title:

Strengthening Families Community Day

Abstract:

The Strengthening Families Community Day event will resemble a fair-like atmosphere that will offer parents and children of Stark County the opportunity to learn about area child/family focused programs as well as connect with the providers of those programs in an interactive and relaxed setting. Area child/family focused programs and providers will have information booths where families can obtain information about available community resources and how to access them. The target population for this event is parents and children.
