

PROJECT THAW
PRC PLAN AMENDMENT

_____ CDJFS will operate Project THAW beginning 1/29/01 through 3/30/01 contingent upon availability of funding.

Project THAW is a one-time home heating benefit that was created to help families with the high home heating costs during the winter of 2000/2001.

Families with a minor child/pregnant woman will be assisted through Project THAW.

Eligible families must have gross income at or below 200% of the federal poverty level and will meet the requirements outlined in OWF/PRC Guidance Letter No. 36. There is no resource limit for receipt of Project THAW.

In addition to the Project THAW benefit amount, the CDJFS

G will

G will not provide an additional supplemental benefit up to $_____ for each eligible household.

Note: This supplemental amount will be paid out of the county's consolidated allocation and will not be coded to Project THAW.

The issuance of the Project THAW benefit is meant to meet this specific episodic need and will not effect future eligibility for other services under the CDJFS' PRC plan.
