Ohio Children's Trust Fund Announces Board Appointment

COLUMBUS, OHIO – The Ohio Children's Trust Fund (OCTF) is pleased to announce a new board member: Ronald Rees, executive director of the Corporation for Ohio Appalachian Development in Athens. Rees will represent southeast Ohio.

"Ronald brings to the board expertise in mental health and nonprofit executive leadership, years of experience in working to ensure the safety of children, and extensive knowledge of programming needs in southeast Ohio," said OCTF Executive Director Kristen Rost. "I thank him for his commitment."

Rees' term began January 8, 2014, and continues through July 2, 2015. This is his first term.

OCTF is the state's sole public funding source dedicated to preventing child abuse and neglect. Housed within the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, it works with its 88 county partners to serve all Ohio communities. Board members represent various regions of the state.
