If so, working as an In-Home Aide child care provider may be a rewarding option for you.

In-Home Aides care for children in the children's own home, but they do not live with the children. They are certified by a county department of job and family services agency after completing background checks and other requirements.

From April 1, 2021, through March 31, 2022, the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services is conducting an In-Home Aide Pilot Program for children with special needs and children who need care during evenings and weekends. For more information visit: jfs.ohio.gov/cdc/docs/IHAFAQsMarch2021.pdf.

All In-Home Aides certified through the program must live in Athens, Hocking, Ross, Vinton, Meigs, or Perry Counties.
