Topic: TANF and Title XX Federal Draws

TANF

Three separate pieces of federal legislation are affecting the availability of TANF funding.

The Claims Resolution Act of 2010, which reauthorized the TANF program through September 30, 2011 was signed by President Obama on December, 8; however,

The FY 2011 Omnibus Appropriations Act (Omnibus Spending Bill) has not been finalized; and

Although an extension of the Continuing Appropriation Act, 2011, which continues TANF funding through December 18th was signed by President Obama, ODJFS has been notified by DHHS that no additional funding will be available until after the beginning of January.

Based on this information, counties are advised that no draws for TANF can be processed by ODJFS for the remaining of 2010.

TANF funding for the liquidation of FFY 10 expenditures will be part of the Oct-Dec quarterly close. Counties will receive their claims for additional TANF funding as part of that quarter's reconciliation process.

Title XX

ODJS continues to monitor the availability Title XX funding and will notify counties immediately if Title XX funding becomes available.
